AROOSTOOK RIVER RAILROAD

[From the Presque Isle Sunrise]

At Fort Fairfield last week we learned that the engineers of the Riviere du Loup Railway have completed the survey and location of the branch road in the direction of Fort Fairfield as far as the boundary line, and commenced the survey and location of the road from thence toward Caribou, last monday We understand they have found a very easy and perfectly feasible route as far as the boundary, along the bank of the Aroostook river, and it is believed that an equally easy route will be found up the river. The River du Loup road will be completed to Tobique this fall, the bridge over the St John built during the winter upon the ice, and next spring they will commence in the direction of Fort Fairfield. The facility and ease with which the means are raised to build railroads in the Province is a reproach to the slow, railroad coaches this side of the "iron posts." There are vast tracts of very valuable timber land in Province It is "crown lands," that is, the property of the government, of the crown of England. Before the establishment of the Dominion Government, and at the disposal at least of the Provincial government now. Instead of being given away to speculators as the lands of Maine have been at a mere nominal price, for nothing comparatively, it has been kept and appropriated to the making of railroads which although not immediately paying roads, will ultimately be fortunes to their proprietors and owners The builders of the Fredericton and River du Loup Railway have a subsidy of 10,000 acres of land per mile, on which money to any amount necessary for the building of the road can be raised at a low rate of interest If the land holds out, as no doubt it will, the road will be made to the Rivere du Loup in the near future, which will open up a railway communication between Halifax, and Quebec, Montreal and the great West, develop and open up for settlement the fertile lands along the whole length of the road, to which immigrants will flock from Europe, every one of whom will add value to the road

This is what is going on in what we Yankees are accustomed to call the "slow coach" Province of New Brunswick. "They are pushing their trunk railway with the utmost speed, and throwing out its arms into our county to secure all the trade and business of Eastern and Northern Aroostook. And they will do it!" What merchant of Fort Fairfield will know or care anything about Bangor after he has a depot, out of which cars will take him in six hours to Fredericton, where steamers will be in waiting to take him and his freight to St. John, Portland, Boston and New York? Presque Isle will be within 12 miles of a railway, so will Caribou, and at the same relative distance all the towns of the Aroostook valley. Nobody here will ride 42 miles over quagmires and gulfs to reach Houlton when we can reach a railroad by riding 12, and even if no road is made to Fort Fairfield, we can reach Tobique by riding 17 miles, or by having a common road made to the mouth of the River de Chute from this village as it will be, and the distance to the railroad will be but 15 miles, Bridgewater will be 12 miles only from the railroad at Buttermilk creek.

The natural course of trade and travel from the Aroostook valley is down the river St John. If there were no railroads any where it would inevitably go down that river. The E. & N. A. Railway has for a time drawn a portion of our trade to Bangor. For several years previous to the building of that road, nearly all the freight of Upper Aroostook went and came by the St John. Her steamboats and tow boats were constantly and profitably employed. From Houlton and vicinity trade went off to Calais, St. Stephen and St. Andrews, and thence by boat to Portland and Boston. In those years when we asked a Bangor man to advertise in the SUNRISE, the reply was, "What use is it to us to advertise in your paper? We do not have any trade from Aroostook." We often heard the remark that it was unusual to see an Aroostook man in the streets of Bangor. We seldom saw Bangor runners here. After the opening of the E. & N. A. road, things somewhat change. People began to talk about going to Bangor again. Bangor runners began to visit us again, and we heard talk about the prices of goods in Bangor. Look over the Registers of the hotels in Bangor and we find almost any day the names of business men in Aroostook. The whole thing is destined to change again, and become so far as Bangor is concerned, as if there were no railroad between Aroostook and that city. And the European & North American road is to suffer by the change as well as the city. Whenever the Riviere du Loup railroad is made, whether made to Fort Fairfield or not, we are all going that way to reach the outside world. And when we get upon that road and reach Fredericton or St. John, we shall do our trading there, or take the boat and go to Portland or Boston. It is perfectly sure that unless a railroad is made from the E. & N. A. Railway in the direction of the river St. John, that Bangor and Upper Aroostook, will become to each other like lands having an ocean almost, between them. This is not what the people of the Aroostook valley want. We do not wish to be compelled to do our business in, or through a foreign land. We never heard a citizen of Aroostook desire it. They all say it is what we must do if we cannot do better, and what we shall do if we must.

But, says many, what is the use to talk about a railroad to Bangor? We have talked about it for twenty years and it seems no nearer being made than it did then. There is truth in the remark, and yet men in their desperation sometimes make railroads even. There was last winter within the power of the Legislature the means to commence the Northern Aroostook Railroad. Once commenced and 12 or 20 miles made, would insure its completion. But our space is full—We will recur to this again at another time

The centennial anniversary of the settlement of Bethel was celebrated on Wednesday, with a procession in which the trappers and hunters with guns and the fruits of the chase led off. Then came the pioneers with their axes, in memory of Nathaniel Segar, who, a hundred years ago, cleared himself a home in the town of Sudbury, Canada, now Bethel. Then there was the doctor with saddle bags stuffed out with medicine, men riving and shaving shingles, dressing flax, grinding corn in a mortar in true Indian fashion. Next followed the goddess of liberty, wrapped in the stars and stripes, the driver of her chariot being dressed in the costume of "ye olden time". In a hay rack, embowered in evergreen, and robed in white, with gilded coronets, were fourteen embryonic goddesses, representing the original states and Maine; another contained a score of young misses representing the coming woman. The old settlers were represented by the Twitchell family in a carriage, bearing the pennon inscription from an old ballad, "And if a Twitchell, strong!" An historical address was delivered by Dr N. T. True and a poem by Prof. Henry A. Chapman. After these exercises the company sat down to a bountiful repast which was followed by toasts and letters from Gov. Dingley and others expressing their regrets at not being able to be present.

Leland Blackington, of Rockland, was seriously injured Tuesday, by the premature explosion of a quarry blast.

TEMPERANCE AND POLITICS.

The letter which we publish elsewhere from a prominent friend of the temperance cause and a member of the Committee of Twenty-One starts out under a mistaken assumption, and we presume unintentionally, subjects us to a misrepresentation which a more careful examination of our remarks would have prevented. We did not intend to intimate, and certainly did not intimate, that the gentlemen comprising that committee were desirous of crippling the Republican vote or aiding the election of Democrats. Our remarks in this connection referred directly to certain Democrats who have been working in the interests of their party to provoke an independent political movement that would draw off Republican voters. The language we used is unmistakable, and we wonder that our correspondent should attribute to it other than its palpable meaning.

And this brings us to our other point, that only the Democrats, and not the temperance men or the temperance cause, can be served by making an issue in the Republican party [illegible] of temperance in the choice of members of the Legislature. We repeat what is plain to everybody—that the enforcement of the [illegible] laws in this city will [illegible] in any way by the election [illegible] Representatives to the Legislature; that the temperance men do not themselves [illegible] ability to elect an independent ticket, and that the direct result of running independent candidates would be to aid the Democrats in their efforts to carry the city. We do not think that a single intelligent friend of temperance who has attended any of these meetings, believes for a moment that their desire for a more stringent enforcement of prohibition would be furthered by the success of the Democratic party, and [illegible] do their utmost to defeat the Republicans they would certainly weaken rather than strengthen their claims upon the support of that party. Every judicious friend of temperance [illegible] that after the Republicans have deferred to their wishes in the nomination of the only candidate in the county who can have anything to do with the enforcement of prohibition, [illegible] calculated to hazard or [illegible] Republican Representatives [illegible] when their [illegible] the temperance [illegible] would be arbitrary and [illegible]. They have a right in common with other citizens to demand [illegible] candidates for their suffrages, [illegible] that the great body of temperance men in Bangor [illegible] the action of the [illegible] Committee [illegible] waiting until it is seen that the regular candidates are unworthy of support before inaugurating a bolt which will [illegible] the enemies of temperance and of the principles valued by this community.

We have a few words for a person who has addressed [illegible] through another medium. Mr. [illegible] best known to most of our readers as a very active and extremely bitter Democratic politician, has recently sought to [illegible] the balance of temperance men by [illegible] his long associates as a "Copperhead party," but he finds it convenient to seek a Democratic organ for the publication of a letter addressed to the editor of the [illegible]. This Mr. Patten expresses "sorrow" that we have done "great injustice" to a respectable portion of the community who, apart from all mere political or partisan questions, are desirous of doing something to avert and arrest the terrible evils of intemperance in our midst. Mr. Patten is mistaken. If he will honor [illegible] with a more careful perusal he will [illegible] that our strictures were not pointed at [illegible] respectable portion of the community, but at [illegible] and one or two [illegible] of the same party who have been [illegible] conspicuous and [illegible] temperance men whom they have fought for years to take such action as would most seriously damage the Republican party in [illegible]. Mr. Patten was just the individual whom we had in view, and his promptness in giving tongue proves the accuracy of our aim. If he has supposed that our silence indicated inattention to the operations of his little game, he made another mistake, for we have been extremely interested in watching his performance in the new role of "temperance reformer."

It has pleased us to note his ardor in the cause, the frequency with which his voice has been raised in the public meetings, the willingness he has manifested in advising the proper course for "temperance men" to pursue, and the unalterable firmness of his conviction that nothing less than the nomination of an independent ticket will advance the cause which has recently become so dear to him.

We have even thought that it is uncommonly kind for the head of the Democratic organization in this District, at a time when the election of a Congressman is pending, to separate himself apparently from his fellows, in order to give his encouragement to the "temperance cause." We presume that it was this philanthropic purpose which induced him to be conveniently absent from the District Convention, in order to avoid possible troublesome suspicions, and that the best understanding of the object of this absence prevailed among the gentlemen who quietly re-elected Mr. Patten as Chairman of the Democratic District Committee. If all these precautions have failed to hoodwink the Republicans and deceive the temperance men of Bangor, we wish to record our opinion that the Democrats of this Congressional District should not reflect too severely upon their Chairman for the failure of his strategic efforts to increase the chances of the party at the ensuing election.

A VEXATIOUS TROUBLE. One of the most serious difficulties encountered in publishing a morning paper in Maine is the late reception of important telegraphic news, which is often so delayed that we are compelled to go to press without it. The report of the Beecher Committee telegraphed from New York last evening is the latest instance. Owing to its length we commenced early in the evening to make a summary, but up to 1 o'clock A. M. only seven or eight hundred words had reached us. As we are obliged to issue our paper at a reasonable hour, our edition will probably be worked off before the conclusion reaches us. Whether all the competent operators are employed on such occasions to serve the Boston papers, or what may be the reason of such delays, we do not know, but we should prefer to receive no mention of these important topics by telegraph rather than to have such disjointed and unsatisfactory fragments as are frequently all that reach us in season for publication. It would seem that this trouble might be remedied.

SOMERSET COUNTY. At the Somerset County Republican Convention held Thursday at Skowhegan the following nominations were made: For Senators, Abel Prescott of Canaan and Wm. F. Stevens of North New Portland, Clerk of Courts, Luther F. Webb of Hartland, County Commissioner, P. C. Green of Athens, County Treasurer, Major H. C. Hall of Norridgewock. At 2 P. M. Speaker Blaine delivered a very able address before the Convention, which was listened to by a large and appreciative audience of his constituents, and frequently applauded.

The Portland Advertiser says: "The Michigan Republican State Convention was all right on the currency question, while the Ohio Democratic State Convention was all wrong. The former approved the President's veto, and declared in favor of a speedy return to specie payments, while the latter went for inflation, and declared that the Government bonds should be redeemed with other promises to pay. The Ohio Democrats have deserted Senator Thurman to follow the lead of cheap politicians."

HON. HANNIBAL HAMLIN.

[From the Eastport Sentinel.]

It is generally conceded that Mr. Hamlin will be re-elected by the Legislature next winter. The candidates against him are all talented and worthy men, but Mr. Hamlin still retains his remarkable popularity with the people, and he deserves it. He is one of the fathers of the Republican party, and he has never wavered in his devotion to its principles. With few equals in ability, he has no superiors in his fidelity to the trusts which the people have confided to him. During his long public career in the Legislature, as Governor, and in Congress, no spot or blemish rests upon him. In all the jobbing and corruption in Congress during and since the war Mr. Hamlin has had no part. His opponents can only urge against his re-election his long public service, and his friends triumphantly refer to the ability and uprightness of that service as his best qualification for its continuance. They admit that Maine has honored him, but they claim that he has honored Maine none the less, and the people feel that so long as they continue to honor him they will honor themselves.

A TEMPERANCE BOLT.

BANGOR, Aug. 25, 1874.

To the Editor of the Whig & Courier:

You say that "a bolting temperance ticket cannot carry this city, and the only possible object in urging such action is to cripple the Republican vote and aid the election of Democrats." You are mistaken. The committee appointed at the Temperance caucus consists of twenty Republicans and one Democrat. They do not wish to "cripple the Republican vote", they do not want to "aid the election of Democrats", they have made no nominations, they have made no bolt; they will avoid making a bolt if they can. The Temperance men have no personal preference as to the nominations. They have no wish to suggest or dictate the nominees. They will only ask that the nominees shall be in sympathy with the laws enacted by the State for the suppression of the liquor traffic and in favor of their impartial execution. But if the Republicans nominate candidates in favor of executing laws against poor liquor dealers and not against rich ones, against distilled, but not against fermented liquors, or who are in favor of executing the laws only so far as they think public sentiment will sustain them (why not try it?), then, and then only, will they bolt. Our nominees must be men who look to the statute book, instead of looking to see what will best insure their re-election. If the Republicans nominate such men the Temperance men will sustain them, but if not, the Republicans, and not the Temperance men, will be responsible for crippling the Republican vote and for aiding the election of Democrats.

POLITICAL AND PERSONAL.

M. R. Middleton, editor of the Quebec Gazette, died on Wednesday.

A. A. Hammond, ex-Governor of Indiana, died at Denver, Col., on Thursday.

Judge Asahel Peck's resignation from the Supreme Court bench takes effect August 31, the day before his probable election to the office of Governor of Vermont.

The Mobile Register has the following significant prediction: "The negro vote in November will not be so large as it was in 1872. Many thousands will flinch before a united white column."

Eastern Democrats will please read this from the St. Louis Republican: "The doctrines held by Eastern Democrats are as objectionable to the Western people as the principles of the Republican party itself. On all questions of national policy the Democrats in the Eastern States have views which the West cannot accept."

The New York Commercial Advertiser says that repudiation is endorsed by the Democratic Conventions of Tennessee, Indiana and Alabama. It has slain Thurman, Hendricks and Church, laid out the McCormick State Committee of Illinois, and is still seeking and finding fresh victims. It will not rest content until it has hopelessly crippled the whole Democratic party.

The St. Louis Globe says: "One good reason for not losing heart, and for keeping up our organization and efficiency, will be found in the fact that in Missouri, after the first day of January, 1876, every person, in order to become a voter, must be able to read and write. Unless we are gravely in error—which we never are—that will disfranchise about as many Democrats as the iron-clad oath did."

The Fall River News says of the Democratic boasting as to that party's chances of carrying Massachusetts: "While it may not be polite to laugh at such nonsense, if honestly entertained, it certainly is proper to wonder at the confidence which a drowning party puts in a dozen flimsy straws, and how easily the human mind, in certain conditions, can bring itself or be brought to believe that 'the moon is made of green cheese,' because it is sometimes shaped like a cheese."

THE PENNSYLVANIA DEMOCRATS. The Pennsylvania Democratic State Convention at Pittsburg, on Thursday, nominated J. F. Temple for State Auditor, W. McCandless for Secretary of Internal Affairs and adopted a platform. The resolutions arraign the Republican party for all sorts of misdoings, declare that the prostration of the country is due to unwise legislation; that the granting of the public lands to corporations tends to corruption; that there should be a return to moderate salaries and a reduction in the number of office-holders; that the claims of the soldiers' widows and orphans should be promptly recognized; that a steady effort should be made to bring the Government notes to a gold basis and a speedy return to specie payment; that the civil rights bill is a gross invasion of the rights of the States to to control their domestic concerns and that mixed schools militate against education.

NEW JERSEY REPUBLICANS. The Republican State Convention met at Trenton on Thursday, and Hon. John H. Hill was chosen President. Hon. George Halsey was unanimously nominated for Governor.

Resolutions were adopted approving the principles upon which the Republican party was founded, and eulogizing its achievements, particularly as to the maintenance of the national credit, reduction of public debt, reconstruction measures and honorable adjustment of foreign complications.

They express unbounded confidence in President Grant; favor such legislation as will maintain the faith of the Government to its creditors, and secure a speedy resumption of specie payments, and approve such a tariff and such equal internal taxation as will afford protection to domestic manufactures and best promote and encourage the industrial interests of the country.

Senator Frelinghuysen and Secretary Robeson made strong speeches, after which the Convention adjourned.

A Democratic paper, which expends a great deal of ridicule over the grammatical errors of a committee of colored men in the South, editorially uses the English language in this finished and lucid style, which we "respectfully submit" for public admiration:

"We respectfully submit that when a political party are reduced, by their own intrigues and selfishness, to a situation that renders them unable to present a candidate who, from whatever cause, must be incapable to discharge the duties of the office, it is time for the people to take the matter into serious consideration."

The Winthrop

WROUGHT IRON FURNACE,

Brick and Portable, 4 sizes Brick, 5 sizes Portable.

Simple and Durable in its Construction. As easily Managed as a Parlor Stove. Large Radiation. Entire Freedom from Coal and Dust. Does not heat the Cellar.

Manufactured by DIGHTON FURNACE CO.

In the construction of the Winthrop Hot Air Furnace it has been made a study to avoid the difficulties and annoyances too often found in Furnaces. Pure warm air, free from gas and dust, is the great desideratum sought. Without enlarging upon the important matter of warming and ventilating houses, about which so much has been written of late, we desire to call your attention to the New Wrought Iron Winthrop Heater, as possessing the requisites for a healthful and economical apparatus.

The base and fire pot of the Winthrop, is made of heavy cast iron, the fire pot lined with brick so that the current of cold air as it comes in from the base does not come in contact with red hot plates, destroying its vitality, but is delivered into the hot air chamber pure and healthful.

The Radiator is made of the best Wrought Iron, as thoroughly riveted as a steam boiler, making the escape of gas and dust an impossibility, thus securing what cannot be guaranteed by any Cast Iron Furnace, with its many flues and joints, a healthful atmosphere.

The reversible flue insures the even distribution of heat over the whole furnace, leaving no part useless, thus making it the most powerful heater in the market. Another distinguishing feature of the Winthrop is the ease with which the flue can be cleaned out. This has been a serious difficulty with most furnaces, but has been entirely overcome in the Winthrop. The accumulation of soot and ashes in the flues can be thoroughly removed in a few minutes. The Winthrop has been thoroughly tested, and we invite all in want of a superior heating apparatus to an examination of its merits.

For sale by

DOMESTIC NEWS.

THE BROOKLYN SCANDAL.

BOWEN AND THE ARGUS

New York, Aug 28 Justice Morse's [illegible] was crowded with spectators [illegible] this forenoon, to hear [illegible] in the case of Henry C. Bowen [illegible] the Brooklyn Daily Argus, in a [illegible] libel. Barnes was present in court [illegible] by a few friends. He waived an examination before the Justice and gave [illegible] to stand trial.

BOWEN ON THE WAR PATH

[illegible] Bowen has again sued the Brooklyn [illegible] contained in an editorial of [illegible] laying damages at $100,000. Bowen [illegible] determination of pushing his suits [illegible]. A warrant for the arrest of William H. Muldoon, city editor of the [illegible] in connection with Bowen's libel suits, [illegible] was effected this afternoon. [illegible] bail in $5000 for his appearance [illegible].

[illegible] TO PLYMOUTH CHURCH

[illegible] Investigating Committee made their [illegible] the Examining Committee of Plymouth Church Friday evening, and the full [illegible] was sent out by telegraph at a late hour.

[illegible] begins by citing the letters of Mr [illegible] to the members of the Committee [illegible] them to make a thorough investigation of the charges affecting his character [illegible] compromised by the publication of [illegible] and [illegible] the authorization of the Examining Committee for the investigation [illegible] presented in behalf of Plymouth [illegible].

The Committee express the utmost [illegible] the circumstances have compelled the [illegible] discussion of the unhappy scandal, but accepting the high and solemn trust imposed, have been profoundly impressed with the grave importance of the duty assumed. Reference is made to the vague rumors affecting the Christian integrity of their beloved Pastor, which first assumed a tangible form in Tilton's letter to Dr. Bacon printed June 26. It was this letter which moved Mr Beecher, two days after, to request an immediate investigation. They say they were asked to make a thorough and impartial investigation of all sources of evidence, and to advise such action as may seem right and wise. They declare their effort to make [illegible] thorough and impartial, and to [illegible] all relevant facts from every obtainable source. For this purpose they summoned [illegible] persons to testify before them

WITNESSES SUMMONED

Mrs E R Tilton, Mrs. H. W. Beecher, Samuel Wilkeson, J. R. Howard, Theodore [illegible], Sam'l. L. Belcher, Mrs N B Morse, [illegible], Rev R S Storrs, Dwight [illegible], [illegible] H Bailey, Mrs Putnam, [illegible] W Mason, Rev W W Patton, Mary [illegible], Richard P Buck, F B Carpenter, [illegible] Thos M Vail, E M Holmes, [illegible] N B Morse, Mrs Mary B Bradshaw, [illegible] Richards, Miss Elizabeth Turner, Francis A Noyes, M D, Charles Corey, M D, [illegible] Moulton, Miss Oakley, Mrs Ovington, [illegible] Rev S B Halliday, Thomas [illegible], B F Tracy, F D Moulton, [illegible] Woodruff, John W. Harmon, and [illegible] Beecher

CARPENTER AND MOULTON

Most of the persons named have attended [illegible] before the committee. One notable exception is Francis B Carpenter. Mr [illegible] D Moulton promised to testify fully, [illegible] to do so. He has submitted [illegible] short statements in writing to the committee consisting chiefly of reasons why he [illegible] to testify and of promises to testify [illegible] of the committee, who have called [illegible] with the result stated. In addition to evidence of the persons named [illegible] have examined a considerable number of [illegible] and other documents which in some way were supposed to relate to the subject [illegible] inquiry. We have held in the [illegible] of our investigation twenty eight sessions.

[illegible] charge of Tilton's first letter is [illegible] and the report says the first question was to find what, if any, offence Mr [illegible] had committed against Tilton. [illegible] statement and in a sense specific charges showed the Bacon letter to refer to a charge of adultery with Tilton's wife. The [illegible] was enlarged by letters and allegations in this letter. Reference is here made to the fact that Tilton during some four years [illegible] recently had alleged in conversation and in writing that the offence was an improper suggestion or solicitation, but as [illegible] passed and his purposes matured, this charge was matured into that of adultery. The specific charges of adultery at Beecher's residence Oct. 10, 1870, and thereafter at his and Tilton's residences on various occasions from the Autumn of 1868 to the spring of 1870 are considered, with what Tilton gives, as evidence thereof.

BEECHER'S RELATIONS WITH TILTON.

The Committee have given the evidence their most careful consideration and find therefrom that in 1861 Mr Beecher became editor and Mr Tilton assistant editor of the Independent, and during this relation they became warm and intimate friends. On or about 1861 Tilton began to urge Mr. Beecher to visit his [Tilton's] house and he became more intimately acquainted with Tilton's family, he urged him to do much of his editorial writing in his study as it was more convenient to write there than at the newspaper office. Mr Beecher visited his house and a friendly relation sprang up between the wife and family of Mr Tilton and Beecher, which continued down to December, 1870, that the friendly relations existing between Mr Beecher and Mrs Tilton, were always well known and understood and met with Mr Tilton's cordial approval.

TILTON'S NEW DEPARTURE

Some years before any open trouble appeared between Beecher and Mr Tilton, his [illegible] doctrines, as set forth in the Independent, of which he had become editor, aroused a storm of indignation and opposition in the West, where this paper was widely circulated. After much discussion this led to the starting of the Advance newspaper in Chicago to supersede the Independent. Tilton, while editor of the Independent, a leading religious newspaper, had come to deny the inspiration of the Scriptures and the Divinity of Christ. His social views about this time also underwent a radical change in the direction of free-love. This marked change in the religious and social views of Mr Tilton was a source of great grief and sorrow to Mrs Tilton. She seemed to be "a very religious woman," amounting almost to enthusiasm, and when this change occurred in her husband she naturally sought her pastor for counsel and sympathy. She set forth in strong terms the suffering her husband's course was causing her.

MRS. TILTON'S CONFESSION.

It now appears that during these years Mrs Tilton became strongly attached to Mr Beecher, and in July, 1870, confessed to her husband an overshadowing affection for her pastor. On or about the 10th of December Mrs T separated from her husband, going with her children to her mother's house. She sent for Mr. Beecher, on his visiting her she made a statement to him of her sufferings and the abuse which she had received at the hands of her husband, which greatly shocked Mr Beecher; he asked and received permission to send to Mrs. T. his wife, whose judgment in such matters he considered better than his own.

[The slow rate at which the report has reached us by telegraph renders it useless to attempt its presentation in this issue, having received only a portion of the document at 3 30 A. M. ED.]

THE SARATOGA RACES.

THE SINGLE-SCULLS.

SARATOGA, Aug 28. Six boats started in the single-scull race of two miles, but Yates and Curtis dropped out, leaving Blake of the Atalantas, Wilson of the Beaverwicks, Roach of the Gramercys and Courtney of the Union Springs, to contest the race. Wilson led at the stake, but Courtney pulled ahead and won the stake, two boat-lengths ahead of all the others. He kept this advantage all through the race, coming in at the finish half a dozen lengths ahead of Roach, Wilson third, Blake last. Courtney's time, 14 minutes and 11 seconds; Roaches, 14.56, Wilson's, 15.10, Blake's, 15.48

The second race was a double scull race of two miles. Three crews started, the Beaverwyks and the Mutuals of Albany and the Athletics of New York. The Athletics came in fifteen or twenty lengths ahead; the Beaverwycks were second and Mutuals third.

A VESSEL ON FIRE.

NEW YORK, Aug 28. At 8 o'clock last night a vessel was discovered on fire, bearing east fifteen miles from Highland Light, Cape Cod. She continued to burn brightly all night, and was still burning this morning. She appeared to be a vessel of about two hundred tons. As the weather was calm, the crew are doubtless all safe

LATER REPORTS.

The vessel seen on fire off Cape Cod proves to be the Norwegian barque Una, Capt. Anderson, which sailed for Boston, Aug. 25, for London. At 3 P. M., 27th, smoke was seen issuing from the forecastle watch, and soon after the flames burst forth, extending over the vessel, although every effort was made by the crew to save her. They were compelled to take to their boats, and were picked up by a fishing vessel. The steamer George Appold took off Capt. Anderson, and brought him to this city. The crew will follow in the fisherman. When last seen the barque was burned nearly to the water's edge. She had a cargo of oil cake

THE PRESIDENT AT MARTHA'S VINEYARD.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass, Aug 28. The festivities at Vineyard Grove last evening were the most imposing the island ever saw. President Grant and other distinguished guests were taken in carriages to Oak Bluffs, where the annual illumination and pyrotechnics had been postponed until this occasion. The bluffs were magnificently brilliant, and the President, who viewed the scene from the tower of Dr. H A. Tucker's cottage, was highly pleased. Some of the rockets were seen from the highlands near this city. Later in the evening Mrs. Grant gave a reception in Rev Dr. Tiffany's cottage. The President after supper called and smoked with Alderman Collins of Cambridge, whose tent had been gaily decorated for the occasion. The President left the Vineyard this morning for Nantucket, Hyannis and Provincetown, and will return in the evening. The arrangements for his visit to Hon. John M Forbes at Nan-hon are again changed—he will go there to-morrow morning and return to Vineyard Grove in the evening and remain at the later place on Sunday. On Monday he will return to Newport via this city, remaining here several hours.

His ankle was sprained and he received several bruises on the head.

PERSONAL. We received a pleasant call yesterday from Hon. Edward Kent, who left this city in June last year and has since made an extended tour through the Old World. During the time that he has been absent he has visited the principal cities of England, Scotland, Germany, France, Italy, Austria, Belgium, Switzer and and other places of note. He returns looking fresh and hale after his long tour and his many friends will be glad to once more see him in their midst.

SAD DROWNING ACCIDENT. A man by the name of Eugene Sewall, who lived in Newport, near the Corinna line, was found drowned in a stream in the latter town last Monday morning. It is said he left his home some time Sunday afternoon, and as he did not return, fears were aroused and search made. His clothes were found on the side of the stream, and his body was discovered to be entangled in the weeds so firmly that his limbs and face were much disfigured. It is thought he went in bathing, and was either taken by cramp, or held down by the weeds

CRUELTY IN GROOMING HORSES. Mr. Editor:—A casual observer of the grooming of horses at the public and private stables in Bangor and elsewhere cannot fail to notice the cruelty of hostlers in persisting in the needlessly violent use of the currycomb upon many of these animals, regardless of the pain thus inflicted. While some horses are quiet under the vigorous plying of this instrument others evidently suffer intensely, and are often violently beaten for their irrepressible manifestations of pain. If the proprietors of horses continue indifferent to this violation of law and decency, the correction of this evil will be taken in hand by the S. P. C. A.

BANGOR, Aug. 28, 1874.

EAST MAINE CONFERENCE SEMINARY. The fall term of this institution has been in successful operation some over three weeks. An uncommon interest seems to be manifest by the students in every department of knowledge. Campmeeting has broken up the regular routine of study this week, however, but it will require only a brief time to get well under way again. The grounds in front of the Seminary buildings have been embellished within the past year, so that the tasty walks and green sward present a very pleasing appearance. There is a good attendance, and hard work is the order of the day.

THE LITTLE FOLKS. Large audiences were present at the entertainments given by the celebrated General Tom Thumb and wife, Commodore Nutt and Miss Minnie Warren at Norombega Hall yesterday afternoon and evening. The exercises consisted of songs, duetts, dialogues, comic sketches, etc. To the children it was a most pleasing entertainment, especially those of larger growth, many of whom were loud in their applause of the comic acts. There will be two performances by the company to-day and they will doubtless be well attended. The skating and dancing of Major Newell is novel and finely done.

THE CHASE HEIRS. A correspondent writes that the meeting of the Chase heirs at Fairfield on the 26th inst. was attended by about eighty persons, and the letters of the representative whom they sent to England to hunt up the records of the family and investigate as to the property which would belong to the heirs in the United States, were read. These, says the writer, gave a glowing description of the Chase property in England, estimating the cash at $90,000 and the real estate as worth even more than this. There was a call for more money to carry on the investigation and a discussion followed during which it was intimated that already the money raised amounted to upwards of $2,000. No account has been returned as to the expenditure of this amount and of other sums, whereupon the meeting voted to send another messenger to England, whom they will require to give a bond to account for moneys received and expended. After some further discussion Alden Chase, of Bryant's Pond, Me, was elected the representative of the Chase heirs in America, with full power to act for them in investigating the subject of the expected fortune in Europe.

PERSONAL. The many Bangor friends of Mr. Edwin A. Perry, who has so efficiently conducted the Local Department of this paper during the past five years, will regret to learn of his removal from this city, having accepted the position of Night Editor on the Boston Daily Herald. In parting with a valued assistant, with whom we have been so long and closely associated in all the relations of journalistic life, we wish to bear testimony to the ability, zeal and courtesy which he has brought to the discharge of every duty. Mr. Perry is a journalist of rare tact, an unusually graceful writer, a gentleman of refined taste and of pleasing address. The unexceptionable character of the reports and other matter in his department bears evidence of his appreciation of the requirements of respectable journalism, and in our purpose of making a thoroughly reliable paper, both for the counting-room and the family circle, he has proved a most trustworthy coadjutor. He will carry with him to his new position the warmest good-wishes of hosts of friends, and none will feel more sincere hopes for his continued advancement and prosperity than those who now sever their uninterruptedly pleasant relations with him on the editorial staff of this journal.

OAKLAND PARK RACES. The races on the Oakland Park, Gardiner, Thursday, were well attended. Following are the summaries.

OAKLAND PARK, Garland, Aug. 27, 1874—Purse of $200, for horses that have never beaten 2 55 $105 to first $50 to second, $25 to third; mile heats, 3 in 5, to harness.

G. E. Abbott ns. blk. g. Van Winkle,	1	1	1
H. W. Brackett ns g g. Androscoggin Boy,	4	2	2
J E Miller ns b/ g Stonewall Jackson,	3	3	4
F. S. Palmer ns. b. m Polly Hopkins,	2	4	4

Time—2:30, 2:41, 2:41.

At the first quarter in this race the driver of Black Pilot, L. J. Brackett, was thrown from his sulky. Great excitement was caused, as the horse without a driver, kept on his way at a high speed around the track, the other drivers doing their best to keep out of the way. Black Pilot behaved handsomely and after passing once around made his way through the enclosure and went to the stable. While going through the fence, the horse was cut on the legs; and had to be drawn from the race, much to the disappointment of all, as good things were expected of him. Brackett is said to be injured internally, and was carried off the track to his hotel. He says he was attempting to pass Fannie, having plenty of room, and was crowded on to the fence and was overthrown. The second heat was declared no heat, as it was thought that Brackett, the driver of Androscoggin Boy, pulled his horse, and a new driver was substituted.

SAME DAY AND TRACK—Purse of $300, for horses that never beat 2 36, $200 to first, $70 to second, and $30 to third, mile heats 3 in 5, to harness.

George C. Goodale ns b g Charlie Merrill,	1	1	1
C Record ns. bh g. Anodyne,	2	2	2
C. E. Abbott ns g. Road Rowdy,	3	3	3

Time—2 36, 2 39½ 2 42

The interest in this race was lessened from the fact that the favorite horse, Messenger Knox, was withdrawn on account of the injuries to his owner and driver, Mr L. J Brackett.

THE TEMPERANCE CAUCUS held in City Hall last evening was called to order by C. V. Crossman, Esq, Chairman of the re-appointed Committee of Twenty-One, and Levi B. Patten, Esq., immediately after rose and moved that the committee make their report. The Chairman replied that it should be done, and called on Mr. M. P. O. Withers to offer prayer, after which the Secretary, Mr. W. L. Wood, read the minutes of the last meeting.

At the close of the reading Mr. Patten again made his motion that the committee present their report. Mr. Crossman then reported in behalf the committee that the gentlemen composing it had met and interchanged opinions in regard to the movement of the Temperance voters of the city. All gave their views and were unanimous in the opinion that, as it was understood that the Republicans would hold their caucus on Tuesday evening, it would be inexpedient to make any nominations prior to that time, as the Republican nominations may be satisfactory to Temperance men. He asked in conclusion that the committee be granted further time, which was voted. Hon A. W. Paine then moved that the report be accepted and the meeting adjourn. Mr. H T. Clark moved to amend by adjourning to Wednesday, September 9th.

Mr. Patten arose at this point and moved that the Committee be discharged from further service, saying "this movement of theirs has an end which I can plainly see. They report no progress and ask more time. I have been placed in a false position in this movement—" Here Hon. A. W. Paine remarked that he thought the audience did not want to sit and listen to a political reply to a political publication. Mr. Patten had an organ open to him and he should answer through that. It was suggested by J. W. Donigan, Esq, that a motion to adjourn was before the house and that it was not debatable. Mr. Clark again pressed his amendment, which was accepted by Mr. Paine. Mr. Patten remarked that he was willing the vote should be taken, but that he should vote the temperance ticket and his brother Paine could not drive him back whence he came. After some further discussion by Mr. Clark and others as to the day of adjournment the vote was taken and doubted. A rising vote was then taken and carried by a large majority, and the chairman declared the caucus adjourned to Wednesday, Sept. 9th.

THAT FORGER AGAIN.

MORE OF HIS EXPLOITS.

Information has been received showing that "H. W. Blood," who visited our city a short time ago and signed the name of Mr H. A. Blood to a check on the Casco National Bank of Portland, which he got cashed here, is known elsewhere for similar indiscretions. We learn that he went to Fitchburg, Mass, and made the acquaintance of one of the best citizens there, and by the gentleman was introduced to the cashier of the First National Bank.

In a short time he presented a check at the bank, which was cashed, his previous introduction being considered a voucher of his reliability. It was soon discovered to be a forgery, and the gentleman who had so kindly introduced him could hardly be made to believe that "so nice a young man" had forged the check. The whereabouts of the "nice young man" were not earned, however, until the account of the little game here was made public. The next that is known of him is that he was at Portland, and went to one of the Islands, where his wife was stopping, and, although Portland officers rowed to the Island, twelve miles distant, that very night, he was not there. Subsequent developments seem to indicate that he came here, and again successfully practiced his calling. It is also said that his wife is now at Little Chebague Island, but where he is, is a question awaiting solution.

BANGOR POLICE COURT.

BEFORE JUDGE GODDARD.

Friday, Aug. 28th. William Harris, whose case was up on Thursday and continued to to-day, the charge being an assault on Officer Graves, was fined $50 and costs; appealed, and being unable to furnish bail, was sent to jail.

Mrs. Hannah Simmons was sentenced to the House of Correction for thirty days as a common brawler, but the mittimus was suspended during good behavior.

SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT.

AUGUST (CRIMINAL) TERM

HON JOHN A. PETERS Justice Presiding
EZRA C. BRETT, ESQ., Clerk.
JASPER HUTCHINGS, ESQ, County Att'y.
RUEL SMITH, ESQ, Stenographer.

Thursday, August 27th. In the matter of indictment against Joseph Brown for unlawful sale of intoxicating liquor, Mr. Sanborn, his counsel, filed a demurrer to the indictment as insufficient in law, which was overruled by the Court and the case goes to the Full Court on a question of law. It is asserted that by a mistake in the Revised Statutes, section 54 of the chapter relating to the sale of intoxicating liquors, there is in fact no penalty provided for an unlawful sale of intoxicating liquors by an authorized agent.

Emerson Batchelder, convicted of an assault on Patrick O'Brien, was sentenced to pay a fine of twenty dollars and costs.

Walter Bartram, for an assault on Emerson Batchelder, was fined ten dollars and costs.

Friday, Aug 28th, State vs. Robert W. Whitney and Alfred Whitney of Lincoln for larceny of a cord and a half of wood, worth $6. Defendants come here by appeal and say that they were hauling wood for another person, piled near to where the prosecutor's wood was, in several piles, and by mistake they took a load from the wrong pile; but the circumstances were such that the jury found Robert W. Whitney, the father, guilty, and Alfred, the son, not guilty, and Robert W Whitney was fined $10, which he paid and was discharged.

J. F. Robinson,
J. F. Godfrey.

The juries were then discharged from further attendance.

During the ten days of jury trials, seventeen cases have been tried, among them a larger proportion of cases growing out of the unlawful sale of intoxicating liquors than at any former term for the last ten years. Nearly eight hundred dollars in fines and costs have been collected, mostly for violations of the Maine law and nearly all in the city of Bangor, while some have refused to pay and have been committed to jail. There were thirteen indictments and forty appeal cases entered at this term for violations of the liquor law, nearly all of which were disposed of finally and fines and costs imposed to the amount of about twelve hundred dollars. At the August term last year there were no indictments found, but there were thirteen cases of appeal for violations of the liquor law, upon which about $450 in fines and costs were collected.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

AN ELEGANT ENGRAVING. We have received from the artists a copy of the first steel engraving of a marine view ever attempted in this country on a large scale. It represents the magnificent new steamship, "City of Peking," of the Pacific Mail Company, leaving the harbor of New York, and is executed in the finest style of line engraving on a steel plate twenty six by thirty-six inches. The splendid steamer which forms the principal object in the picture is a companion vessel to the "City of Tokio," the hulls of which were built at Chester, Penn., and the machinery at New York by the celebrated architects, John Roach & Son. Both vessels are 423 feet long, 48 feet wide and 38 feet deep, with a carrying capacity of 5,500 tons, being the largest vessels that have ever carried the American flag. The engraving is a work of art, the great vessel and the chopping sea off Sandy Hook being vivid with motion. As accessories to the main subject the champion yacht "Magic," the famous pilot-boat "Enchantress," an inward-bound steamer and a sail-boat are introduced in the picture, which demonstrates the success attained by American art in treating the difficulties of a marine subject on steel. The engraving is handsomely mounted in a frame of carved walnut and gilt, and is highly creditable to the taste of the Company, and to the skill of Messrs. HOMER LEE & Co, of 62 Liberty street, New York, who executed the engraving to order. This establishment obtained the highest award at the Vienna Exposition of 1873.

The letters published by Moulton are important, and one of them contains what is to us the weightiest declaration of innocence yet made by Mr Beecher. In the letter of June 1, 1871, in which he expresses his distrust of Tilton, he says, "I shall write for the public a statement that will bear the light of the judgment day. God will take care of me and mine." This expression occurring in a private letter is in our opinion the strongest documentary proof which has been submitted in favor of innocence. It is less susceptible of explanation, than Moulton's admission: "You can stand if the whole case is made public.—Springfield Republican."

AN ECONOMICAL SUGGESTION. There is generally a good deal of the apocryphal in anecdotes of public men, and especially in those relating to soldiers, but the following is good enough to be true, whether it is truth or fiction:

"At Fair Oaks, while standing in a very tempest of death, with his sword uplifted in command, Gen. O. O. Howard had his right arm carried away. That night, after Howard had suffered amputation, and was lying spent and racked with pain in a box car which was to take him to Washington, Kearney drew near, and, looking into the car, said 'Howard, old boy, I am sorry for you—sorry with all my heart; but Howard, I have just thought of something. When you get to Washington buy a pair of gloves; send me the right and keep the left for yourself, and I will divide the cost with you, and hereafter we will get along more economically.' And turning away Kearney muttered: 'That is better for him than praying, and then' How all can beat me praying anyway'"

The cold-blooded murder of negro prisoners at Trenton, Tennessee, has at last aroused the indignation even of the Tennessee public. The press of Memphis denounce the cowardly butchery, and a battalion of State Guards have tendered their services to the Governor to bring the murderers to justice.

THE TIMES NOT SO BAD. The current statistics show that the times are not so dull as many people have supposed. Advices from Washington say that Commissioner Douglass reports that so far in the fiscal year the Internal Revenue returns show an increase over the corresponding period last year. The receipts for July were half a million in excess of those for July, 1873, and the indications are that there will be a slight increase the current month, notwithstanding it is ordinarily one of the most quiet months of the year. It will give no general dissatisfaction to know that the Commissioner reports the distillery business unusually dull. In harmony with these revenue statistics are those relating to our exports. The figures at the port of New York—exclusive of specie—for the last three years, compare as follows:

1872 .... $1[illegible],401,440
1873 .... 1[illegible],308,[illegible]
1874 .... 1[illegible],971,435

This is doing very well for dull times. It is barely possible that the fact of business at this time not coming up to that of flush times still fresh in the memory of all, and that the country being bigger the same amount of business makes less show than formerly, tend to deceive people as to the amount of trade actually going on. That business is quiet is clear enough to everybody, but at the same time there may be more of it than people suspect, while the depreciatory talk about it only makes the matter worse.—Boston Journal.

The political ostracism the White League Democracy are attempting is illustrated by the following resolution adopted by the A to White League of Louisiana, July 11.

"That we regard it the sacred and political duty of every member of this club to discountenance and socially proscribe all white men who unite themselves with the Radical party, and to supplant every political opponent in all his vocations by the employment and support of those who ally themselves with the white man's party, and we pledge ourselves to exert our energies and use our means to the consummating of this end."

MR. BOWEN'S LIBEL SUITS. A New York special to the Boston Globe says the suit of Henry C Bowen of the Independent against the Brooklyn Eagle is for publishing certain libellous articles against him, including the report of an interview which Bowen claims is wholly false, and in which certain expressions of opinion on the Beecher case are attributed to him, which he repudiates; also for publishing certain other malicious, scandalous, libellous articles concerning the plaintiff. Damages are laid at $100,000. The Eagle publishes a sworn affidavit of a reporter who had the interview with Bowen which the latter denies, affirming the authenticity and genuineness of said interview. A civil suit for damages, for $50,000, has been instituted by Bowen against James McDermott, the reporter in question. McDermott is held in $2,000 bail to answer the charges.

Bowen and his sons Clarence and Edward, have instituted a suit against Demas Barnes, proprietor and publisher of the Argus, charging libel in publishing a false, malicious, defamatory article, Aug. 24, in the Argus, concerning Mrs. Bowen, the former wife of Mr Bowen, and asserting that, when on her death-bed, she made a confession of adultery, and saying Bowen's grief and rage were intense, and pointing to the Rev H. W. Beecher as the other criminal along with Mrs. Bowen; also insinuating that financial considerations induced Bowen to refrain from visiting on Beecher, the just indignation and punishment of such a crime; also that Beecher had told Bowen that several of his, Bowen's, children were illegitimate.

Preliminary papers and warrants in all the above suits were served Thursday, and caused considerable excitement, as this action of Bowen is rather unexpected. Demas Barnes was arrested, and underwent a preliminary examination. Barnes said the matter referred to was published without his knowledge, and, as soon as discovered, it was stopped further publication. He desired time to consult counsel, and was released on his own recognizance.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS

For Inventions, Trade Marks or Designs,

No 76 State Street, opposite Kilby Street, Boston,

After an extensive practice of upwards of thirty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States, also in Great Britain, France, and other Foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all papers for Patents executed on reasonable terms, with despatch. Researches made to determine the validity and utility of Patents of Inventions, and legal and other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.

No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a Patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents."

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

"Mr R. H. EDDY has made for me over THIRTY applications for Patents having been successful in almost every case. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges.

APPLETON'S

AMERICAN CYCLOPÆDIA

New Revised Edition.

Entirely rewritten by the ablest writers on every subject. Printed from new type and illustrated with Several Thousand Engravings and Maps.

The work originally published under the title of THE NEW AMERICAN CYCLOPÆDIA was completed in 1863, since which time the wide circulation which it has attained in all parts of the United States, and the signal developments which have taken place in every branch of science, literature and art have induced the editors and publishers to submit it to an exact and thorough revision and to issue a new edition entitled THE AMERICAN CYCLOPÆDIA.

Within the last ten years the progress of discovery in every department of knowledge has made a new work of reference an imperative want.

The movement of political affairs has kept pace with the discoveries of science and their fruitful application to the industrial and useful arts and the convenience and refinement of social life. Great wars and consequent revolutions have occurred, involving national changes of peculiar moment. The civil war of our own country, which was at its height when the last volume of the old work appeared, has happily been ended, and a new course of commercial and industrial activity has been commenced.

Large accessions to our geographical knowledge have been made by the indefatigable explorers of Africa.

The great political revolutions of the last decade, with the natural result of the lapse of time, have brought into public view a multitude of new men, whose names are in every one's mouth and of whose lives every one is curious to know the particulars. Great battles have been fought and important sieges maintained, of which the details are as yet preserved only in the newspapers or in the transient publications of the day, but which ought now to take their place in permanent and authentic history.

In preparing the present edition for the press, it has accordingly been the aim of the editors to bring down the information to the latest possible dates, and to furnish an accurate account of the most recent discoveries in science, of every fresh production in literature, and of the newest inventions in the practical arts, as well as to give a succinct and original record of the progress of political and historical events.

The work has been begun after long and careful preliminary labor, and with the most ample resources for carrying it on to a successful termination.

None of the original stereotype plates have been used, but every page has been printed on new type, forming in fact a new Cyclopædia, with the same plan and compass as its predecessor, but with a far greater pecuniary expenditure, and with such improvements in its composition as have been suggested by longer experience and enlarged knowledge.

The illustrations which are introduced for the first time in the present edition have been added not for the sake of pictorial effect, but to give greater lucidity and force to the explanations in the text. They embrace all branches of science and of natural history, and depict the most famous and remarkable features of scenery, architecture and art, as well as the various processes of mechanics and manufactures. Although intended for instruction rather than embellishment, no pains have been spared to insure their artistic excellence; the cost of their execution is enormous, and it is believed they will find a welcome reception as an admirable feature of the Cyclopædia, and worthy of its high character.

This work is sold to subscribers only, payable on delivery of each volume. It will be completed in sixteen large octavo volumes, each containing about 800 pages, fully illustrated with several thousand Wood Engravings, and with numerous colored Lithographic Maps.
